Get Your Money Back: International Refunds If you sent something internationally and didn't receive the expected service, you might be eligible for a refund. This could happen if delivery standards weren't met, full service wasn't provided, or you were overcharged. Learn more about requesting an international refund from USPS. Important Notice: As of September 29, 2024, USPS suspended Global Express Guaranteed (GXG) for all destinations due to changes in the money-back guarantee terms and conditions. What's Covered? * Delivery standards weren't met * Full service wasn't provided * Overcharge How to Request a Refund: 1. Check if you're eligible: Review the delivery standards, full service, or overcharge. 2. File your request: Within 30 days of mailing date, provide the original receipt and supporting documents. Additional Refund Options: * Click-N-Ship (CNS) labels: Unused labels printed within the past 90 days are eligible for refunds. * Priority Mail Express International: Refunds available with some restrictions if there's loss, damage, or missing contents. Inquiry must be initiated within 90 days of mailing date. Contact USPS Customer Care at 1-800-222-1811 for more information and to request a refund. You can file a refund request with USPS if your Priority Mail Express International shipment did not arrive on time. To start the process, submit PS Form 3533 within 30 days of the mailing date and provide proof of purchase. The Postal Service will only refund postage when you've initiated the inquiry within the required timeframe and received confirmation from the foreign postal administration. Labels not scanned by postage system or printed within last 30 days are eligible for refund. To request refund, log in to Click-N-Ship account, click Shipping History, select Refund Labels, and proceed. For labels over 30 but less than 60 days old, contact Help Desk with username, account number, label number, transaction number, and date. EDDM Retail refunds can be requested online or at Post Office depending on order placement and drop-off status. If created and paid for on EDDM website without drop-off, request refund through Order History in USPS.com Account. For orders already submitted at Post Office, contact 1-877-747-6249 and select Option 3. Refunds are processed manually within seven days. If you began your EDDM order online but paid at the Post Office, request refund at the location where payment was made. Refunds for new or unused PO Boxes can be requested pro-rated with original service agreement details. For existing PO Box keys, apply for a refund at the Post Office where the box is located within 30 days of original payment. You may also request a refund online if you applied online and haven't used or picked up the box keys. Contact ICCC PO Box Help Desk (1-800-344-7779) for refunds on new or existing PO Boxes, especially if there was an error in your Postal Store order. Learn about options for wrong, missing, or damaged orders in The Postal Store Returns & Exchanges Premium Forwarding Service Residential (PFS-Residential) refunds can be requested online or at the Post Office depending where you set up the service. Unless prepaid and unused, you can request a refund for delayed shipments under PFS-Residential Terms & Conditions. To initiate the process, go to USPS.com or visit a Post Office, depending on how your service was set up. You'll need to provide an order confirmation number, tracking number, and reason for the refund request. Once processed, you'll receive an email with the outcome. Refund requests typically take 2-3 business days, but may be delayed if additional information is required. If approved, the credit will be applied to the associated credit card account. It may take up to two billing cycles for the refund to appear. Each tracking number can only be used once, and you must combine refunds for Priority Mail Express and related services into a single request. Priority Mail Express comes with a money-back guarantee based on its service features. Refunds are eligible 2-30 days after mailing without extra services or 30-60 days if an extra service was purchased. You can apply online or visit a Post Office to fill out Form 3533 and submit it with your original customer copy of Label 11. For USPS Package Intercept, the fee ($17.50) plus any applicable postage charge may be refundable if the shipment wasn't intercepted. Requests are processed within 2-3 business days unless additional information is required. If approved, the credit will be applied to the associated account, taking up to two billing cycles to appear. You can request a refund online for USPS Package Intercept and Pickup On Demand services if they weren't performed according to their service features. To be eligible for a refund, the carrier must not have delivered the package as scheduled. To initiate a pickup, show up on the designated day and time. Carrier will also arrive on this specified day for the pickup. If you need to cancel your pickup, submit your request by 5 am local time on the scheduled pickup date. For refunds, provide an Order number, Confirmation number, or USPS Tracking Number for the shipment(s) you'd like refunded. Also, include a reason for the refund and any additional details that may be necessary for processing. Once processed, you'll receive an email with the outcome of your request. Refund requests usually take 2-3 business days to process, but if more information is required, it may take longer. Approved refunds will be credited back to the credit card associated with your account and may take up to 2 billing cycles to appear. You can submit a refund request online or in-person at the Post Office. Refunds are paid differently depending on the service used and how you applied for it. Online refunds receive a check by mail, while those requested in-person will be refunded in cash, check, or money order. Click-N-Ship refunds are credited back to the original payment account. Business customers who request online refunds will receive a check instead of having their account credited. If your refund is only partially approved or denied, you can dispute the decision within 30 days of receiving it.
